

AADDM

Australian Association of Developmental Disability Medicine

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

Dr Christel Burton Dr Margaret Kyrkou

Dr Jess Smith Nicole Kyrkou

WHAT IS AADDM?

Refer to the AADDM Website for more detail:

<http://aaddm.com.au>

AADDM is an organisation of medical practitioners and other professionals who specialise or have an interest in improving the health and function of the over 500,000 Australian children, adolescents and adults with ID. AADDM aims to improve the health of children, adolescents and adults with intellectual and developmental disability through professional development and advocacy.

AADDM has been and continues to be a major contributor to government policy with a remarkable history of successful advocacy leading to widespread changes in healthcare delivery throughout Australia

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Full Membership – $100

Legally qualified medical practitioner within Australia

Associate Membership – $100

People who have a demonstrated interest in the health of people with an intellectual or developmental disability.

Honorary Life Membership

Awarded by AADDM to a retired member who continues to actively support the goals of the association.

President: Dr Jacqueline Small
Vice-President: Prof Julian Trollor

C/- QCIDD, Level 2, Aubigny Place, Mater Hospitals, South Brisbane Qld 4101
T: +61 (7) 3163 1589 | F: +61 (7) 3163 2445
E: AADDMsecretariat@gmail.com | W: <http://aaddm.com.au>
ABN: 61 039 294 522

