

Day 1. Pre-Conference Workshop Thursday 6th November

Increasing access and safe approaches to health procedures and care of persons with complex disability:

- Multi-tiered sedation pathways
- Complex care coordination for hospital admissions and pre-hospital admission planning
- Learnings from special needs dental care
- Inpatient support for people with disability and responsive behaviour

12:30pm Arrival and Registration

Agency of Clinical Innovation

Foyer- 1 Reserve Road, St Leonards (Royal North Shore Hospital)

13:00 Introduction and Welcome

Dr Jessica Smith- AADDMM Vice-President; CARE Ability Clinical Lead Adelaide SA

13:10 Motivated for Change

Dr Karl Pobre- Emergency Medicine/ Motivated for Change Program CHW, Sydney NSW

13:30 The Quiet Pathway

Stephanie Criscini Quiet Pathway Coordinator and Kaytlin Grech RN CHW, Sydney

13:50 Adolescent Emergency Behavioural Response Team (ABERT)

Maria Manna Deputy Director Nursing and Midwifery Hornsby Hospital, NSW and James Boland Project Officer NSLHD

14:00 A Need for a Needle

Katherine Peverell CNS Paediatric Sedation Clinic RNSH, Sydney

14:10 Panel Questions

14:30 Afternoon Tea

14:50 Adult Nurse Led Sedation

Michelle Templeton (RN) and Dr Andrea Simpson Disability Health Research Lead, Centre for Developmental Disability Health

15:10 Non-pharmacological support of minor medical procedures- The role of an Occupational Therapist

Georgina Smith Autism SA and Robyn Middleton CNC Inclusive Care Clinic Flinders Medical Centre

15:30 Pre-hospital planning and complex care admission

Stephanie Searle Service Manager SAIDHS, Adelaide SA

15:50 Special Needs Dental Care

Dr Avanti Karve Staff Specialist Special Needs Dentistry Westmead Hospital, Sydney NSW

16:10 Panel Questions

16:30 Wrap-up and close

Acknowledgment: AADDM wishes to acknowledge the generosity of the Agency of Clinical Innovation-Intellectual Disability Network for their support of the pre-conference workshop.